CASTRO BECOMES HAUGHTY.

Refuses to Listen to Protests of French Minister in Behalf of Man Who Would Not Withdraw Demands on Government.

Part. July 1 -- Advices have been received from Caracas giving particulars of the expulsion from Venezueia of a Frenchman named Vialerigo, a leading figure in the forolony at Caracas, who, in accordance the protocols, brought a claim for $6,000 damages against the Government for being imprisoned for two months without any reason being alleged. The official press, by order of the Govern-ment, published violent attacks on him and on an American citizen named Olcott, and on the eye of the case going before the mixed tribunal Vialerigo received an order mixed tribunal Vialerigo received an order of expulsion.

M. Wiener, the French Minister at Caracas, saw President Castro and induced him to suspend the decree, but President Castro asked Vialerigo to withdraw his claim.

This request was refused and the decree of expulsion was carried considerable stir among the foreign colony in Caracas, as it is feared that it implies a policy of intimidation of the foreign claimants, and that the Venezuelan Government is seeking to avoid the consequences of the agreement signed in Washington.

The benefits that the nomblockading foreign countries were believed to have gained by signing the protocols are considered to be seriously menaced. It has become very difficult to treat with President Castro since the defeat of the rebels under General Matos. He refused to listen to the protests of Minister Wiener, who, supported by the dean of the Diplomatic Corps, who spoke in the name of his colleague, asked the President to reconsider the decree of expulsion ainst M. PLEA OF INSANITY IS KNAPP'S DEFENSE

Alleged Murderer's Mother Tells Story of Injuries He Received in Youth.

HER MEMORY IS DEFECTIVE.

Former Teacher Says That as a Boy the Accused Was Dull and Lacked All Discrimination Between Right and Wrong.

Hamilton, O., June 1-In the Knapp murder trial to-day it developed that the chief defense will be insanity.

Knapp's mother, Mrs. Susan Knapp, was called. Her testimony strongly tended to prove that Knapp was insane as a result of injuries received in youth This afternoon Mrs. Knapp detailed her son's actions about the time of the alleged murder, relating numerous wild assertions and acts tending to show insanity. In reply to a direct question by Lawyer

Darby she said that she thought Alfred was insane. Prosecutor Card, on cross-examination, tried to show that Mrs. Knapp's memory was not reliable. He succeeded in involving her in repeated contradictions, errors as to the date of accidents and other circum-The deposition of Mrs. M. T. Marshall

The deposition of Mrs. M. T. Marshall, Knapp's former teacher at Madison, Ill. was read after Mrs. Knapp left the stand. Mrs. Marshall said that Knapp was a dull disobedient boy, incapable of learning, and lacking, in her opinion, all discrimination between right and wrong. She thought that he was unbalanced. He was often sick in school and subject to bad headacnes. Cyrus Knapp of Cincinnati, a brother, said that on the day before the alleged murder he visited Knapp, who acted irrationally, sitting with his head in his hands. Knapp told him that he was an actor, and he expected to be the next Mayor of this city. Answering a direct question, he said that he regarded Alfred Knapp as insane.

Keep Your Insides Cool!

Here's a man who thinks he has heart disease, and is scared half to death. His face is all drawn out of shape from fear and agony. Every time he eats, his heart "palpitates"-that simply means that his stomach is swelled up with gases from fermenting undigested food, and his heart thumps against his diaphragm. Nothing the matter with his heart. In the summer time, this gas distention is much worse, his whole body and blood get over-heated, and his heart and lungs get so crowded for room, that he gasps for breath. There he is, look at him! Every minute he expects to drop dead. As a matter of fact, all he needs is to stop that souring and gas forming in his stomach and bowels, help his digestion along, and keep cool inside.
